Report of Malvan Tour

Department of Botany, Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (Autonomous) has organized two days study tour at Malvan and adjoining areas on 31 March to 01 April 2022. At the time of visit the specific plants were collected these are highly medicinally important. Students are highly benefited and observed all the plants in natural habitat. Malvan seashore the various halophytic mangroves and aquatic algae's are also critically known by the students which is very new and specific experience to the students. This study tour adds the scientific knowledge about seashore plants. Which will be highly beneficial for their studies.
