Difference of opinion over land distribution

Express Home Services

There was extensive discussion at a meeting of the previous Friday of the name of Finsen today over the issue of disbursement of the $100,000.00. The members were unanimous in their desire to have the money disbursed as soon as possible. They also agreed that the money should be used for the benefit of the Minot area, but that the distribution should be done in a manner that would be fair and equitable.

The AICO general secretary, Mr Frank Manktelow made a strong case, before the Select Committee and Authors Friends, against the proposal.
