Lapses Committee Meeting Minutes

The Lapses Committee meeting for January-February 2022 examination session was held on Saturday 09/04/2022 at 11:00am the following members were present for the meeting.

The following points were discussed and the resolution has been made

1. In all 357 issues were taken up in the meeting dated 08/03/2022 the 186 cases were resolved and remaining 171 cases were taken in the meeting. 92 black screen cases were found. The issue with the black screen is because of some students were using old mobile browsers which is the main problem as the proctoring software showing the black screen during examination. It was resolved as the cases were found genuine.
2. 124 students were found that they offed their camera during examination. The committee carefully examined such issues and finned to those who found guilty.
3. The 51 cases were found that the multiple faces captured during examination all cases considered as misconduct of examination were taken for discussion and the decisions were made as per the examination lapses policies.
4. 14 cases were raised as the proctoring system found the finger on camera. The committee considered such cases happened unintentionally and were taken for discussion and the decisions were made as per the examination lapses policies.
5. 54 suspicious activities seen in camera during examination. Guilty students were considered as misconduct of examination were taken for discussion and the decisions were made as per the examination lapses policies and other cases were resolved in the meeting.
