About the Sanstha:

Shri Swami Vivekanand Shikshan Sanstha was established by Shikshanmaharshi Dr. Bapuji Salunkhe in the year 1954 with the motto "Education for knowledge, science and culture." It was named after the great philosopher Swami Vivekanand to realize and disseminate his great ideals regarding education and nation-building. The Sanstha operates 330 education centers across 13 districts of Maharashtra and one district in Karnataka and imparts education to more than 2 Lakh students. Most of the educational centers are located in rural, obscure areas imparting education to the less privileged children. Dr. Bapuji Salunkhe's was awarded D.Lit. by Shivaji University, Kolhapur and the title 'Dalit Mitra' by the Govt. of Maharashtra for his dedicated work and great service to the downtrodden and poor communities of the society. The Sanstha is embracing the new and advanced trends in education under the able leadership of Hon. Prin. Abhaykumar Salunkhe, Chairman, Shri Swami Vivekanand Shikshan Sanstha and Hon. Prin. Mrs. Shubhangi Gavade, Secretary, Shri Swami Vivekanand Shikshan Sanstha.

About the college:

Vivekanand College, Kolhapur which was established in 1964 is known as one of the best quality colleges in Maharashtra. About 8000 students are enrolled every year for various programmes. Besides the conventional programmes like B.A., B.Com. and B.Sc., M.Com. and M.Sc. (Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Inorganic Chemistry) the college offers the professional programmes like B.B.A., B.C.A., B.C.S., B.Sc. (Biotechnology), B.Voc. (Graphic Design, Foundry Technology, Animation and Film-making, Photography and Videography), Community College (Photography, Cinematography, Event Photography) and M. B. A. The college also provides opportunity to undertake degrees like B.A., B.Com., B.Sc., B.Lib., M.Lib., M.Sc. Environment Science and M.B.A. of YCMOU, Nashik.

Our college has been securing the first place for last twenty years by winning maximum number of Shivaji University Merit Scholarships. The faculty of the college excel in community-oriented research. Till date in all 27 minor and major research projects are undertaken by the faculties.

The college has also acquired reputation in the fields of dance, drama, music, other arts and sports, besides academics. The college has won the 'Meghnath Nageshkar Trophy' of Shivaji University for the Best College in the field of Sports for eleven years continuously. Sandip Tarate and Snehankita Varute are the recipients of the "Chhatrapati Shivaji Award". Rahi Sarnobat is the winner of the Asian Games held in Indonesia in August 2018. Rahi Sarnobat and Veerdhaval Khade represented India in 'London Olympics-2012', which is a historic record as both belong to the same college. Till date the college has produced more than 250 national and 10 international sports players.

The college has also proved its talent in the field of cultural activities by winning General Championship in the Central Youth Festival of the university for ten years and many other competitions of national prestige.

The college has been identified twice as the "College with Potential for Excellence" by the UGC, and included in "The Star College Scheme" by the DBT, Govt. of India. It was granted Autonomous Status by UGC in the year 2018.

The Theme of the Seminar:

India formally inaugurated neoliberal reforms in its economy in 1991. Liberalization of economy in India has persisted steadily but sluggishly. Neo-liberal policies and integration with the world economy have affected social and political life in India variously and deeply. Turn toward markets and corporatization affects the life conditions of workers as citizenry. The welfare function of the State provides the necessary cushion in the economic and social transformation that takes place with liberalization. The social welfare becomes an all the more important aspect of policy and politics when at the same time liberalization is equated with decline of the welfare state. In this context, it becomes necessary to probe into the nature of neo-liberal reforms in India, their impact and the nature, content and impact on the lives of citizens.

The seminar aims to contribute to the public discourse on neo-liberal economic policy and the welfare role of the State in the context of their interaction and inter-relation. This is an attempt to substantiate the inter-disciplinary dimension of this issue. Though its independence is valued, economic policy cannot separate itself from social and political accountability and on the other hand, too much politicization of welfare policies creates challenges for economy and democracy. The seminar aims to throw light on the possibility of rational and socially accountable balance in economic and social policy of the State in the context of neo-liberalism.

The turn toward liberalization in the 1980s has been explained variously, including in terms of the changes in coalition of the dominant classes, that is changing nature of the social character of the State. Neo-liberal reforms do not pertain only to economic policies but imply changes in the organization and functioning of State institutions to align them to market rationality (Joseph 2007). The problems faced by developmental state in the world and India created legitimacy for the neo-liberal reforms in the economic sector. On the other hand, democracy is believed to be linked to the welfare demands which create pressure of the resource capacity of the state.

Subthemes:

1. The current neo-liberal policy turns in India
2. The impact of international political economy on the current Indian policies

3. The changing social character of the Indian State
4. Welfare as a right of citizens
5. The nature of welfare policies in India
6. The role of welfare in the political outcome of elections
7. The status of economic rights in India
8. The impact of democratic politics on welfare rights of citizens
9. The interaction between the political and economic rights
10. The way forward in economic rights
11. Neo-Liberal reforms and Indian Financial System
