Essay Writing Competition :

"Ideal Person - Swami Vivekanand"

Swamiji has given vast spiritual knowledge of Yoga and Vedanta to the youth of the world. Swami Vivekanand is the leading humanist of the modern world. He reflected the spirit of universal brotherhood in his words and works.

He came from a rich and cultured family of Kolkata on January 12, 1863. Biswanath Dutta and Bhubaneswari Devi were his parents. Narendranath was his real name.

He passed the entrance examination from Metropolitan School and graduated from Scottish Church College. After his father's death he found life a hard struggle.

Meanwhile, he got a chance to meet Sri Ramkrishna. The saintly soul discovered godly qualities lying latent in him. He accepted Ramkrishna as his mentor. He was reborn. He could now hear the still, sad music of humanity. He felt an urge to save the suffering souls.

There he upheld the essence of Indian culture and religion. He is considered as one of the most influential spiritual educationist and thinker of India. He derived his language of poetry. For example:

" All love is expansion, all selfishness is contraction.

Love is therefore the only law of life.

He who loves lives,

He who is selfish is dying.

Therefore love for love's sake,

because it is law of life,

just as you breathe to live."

That's His personality was noble for its comprehensiveness and deep sensitiveness to evils prevalent in the socio-economic and moral structure of country. His vision was immensely clear and he could easily penetrate into currents in history of India.

By the lectures and speeches of Swami Vivekananda, many youth were inspired to ideas of social service and character building. But sadly that's unfortunately for us, this greatly personality died only at the age of 39 in July 1902. In this age of moral decay, his ideals should be preached and practiced in right earnest. He was a mighty inspiration to youth throughout his lifetime, and continues to inspire the youth of today. That's salam to its inspirefull work! Thank you...!

Ideal Person - Swami Vivekananda

Swami Vivekananda once said, "If you have lost your wealth, you have lost nothing; if you have lost your health, you have lost something; if you have lost your character, you have lost everything." I strongly believe in this saying of Swami Vivekananda. Character makes a human being. A person with spotless and indisputable character is invaluable, whereas the wealthiest person without character is not even worth mentioning. A person of character will attract wealth but a wealthy person cannot buy good character even with all his/her wealth. But, sad to note that people now-a-days give more importance to "money" than "character". Money has become the "only religion" people worship of late.

Swami Vivekananda's inspiring personality was well known both in India and in America during the last decade of the nineteenth century and the first decade of the twentieth. The unknown monk of India suddenly leapt into fame at the Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893, at which he represented Hinduism. His vast knowledge of Eastern and Western culture as well as his deep spiritual insight, fervid eloquence, brimade an irresistible appeal to the many types of Americans who came in contact with him. People who saw or heard Vivekananda even once still cherish his memory after a lapse of more than half a century.

In America Vivekananda's mission was the interpretation of India's spiritual culture, especially in its Vedantic setting. He also tried to enrich the religious consciousness of the Americans through the rational and humanistic teachings of the Vedanta philosophy. In America he became India's spiritual ambassador and pleaded eloquently for better understanding between India and the New World in order to create a healthy synthesis of East and West, of religion and science.

The Swami's mission was both national and international. A lover of mankind, he strove to promote peace and human brotherhood on the spiritual foundation of the Vedantic Oneness of existence. A mystic of the highest order, Vivekananda had a direct and intuitive experience of Reality. He derived his ideas from that unfailing source of wisdom and often presented them in the soulstirring language of poetry.

He reminded everyone that learning is the most effective method to measure the destiny and progress of humanity. He also encouraged pupils to participate in activities and games to enhance their muscular stamina.

Swami Vivekananda thought that serving humanity ought to be selfless since serving humanity equalled serving God. He constantly laboured towards the well-being of society, in service to the poor and needy, & gave his all for the nation.
