Respected Sir,

Sub: To conduct Seminar on opportunities in Clinical Research in Vivekanand College (Jointly organised by Department of Microbiology and Biotechnology)

Alchemy Clinical Research Services (ACRS) is a nationally recognized Clinical Research organization having operations in India. ACRS was founded in 2012 to create a competent resource pool of professionals for the Clinical Research Industry. Please visit our corporate website www.alchemyclinical.in for more information.

We have carefully chosen educational content and technology by leveraging expertise and capability in conceptualizing, designing, and producing the best available curriculum

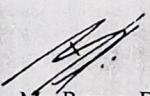

The seminar will cover the following topics:

- Introduction to clinical research
- Scope of clinical research in India
- Opportunities in clinical research
- Career prospects in clinical research

We want to take a valuable opportunity to deliver a seminar in your college so that the outgoing students of your college get into the industry of Clinical Research and specializations and enhance their employability. We request you to kindly permit us to conduct the seminar at the college auditorium. We look forward to your positive response.

We expect your whole-hearted support in our endeavor to mold our students into competent professionals and achieve success in life.

Sincerely,

Mr. Pranav Bhosale
