One page Report on webinar

On March 5, 2024, Department of Botany at Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (Empowered Autonomous) organized an enlightening online webinar. The event aimed to guide students toward diverse career opportunities after completing their undergraduate and postgraduate studies. The session featured Mr. Vikas Yadav from IFAS Edutech Pvt. Ltd., Pune., who shared valuable insights on academic paths, industry roles, government opportunities, and entrepreneurship for botany graduates and postgraduates. Participants gained a deeper understanding of the multifaceted career landscape in the field of botany, empowering them to make informed decisions about their future paths.

This webinar holds strategic significance for the institution on multiple fronts: Documentation for Accreditation: The webinar served as substantive evidence in pursuit of NAAC accreditation and IQAC initiatives. The speaker shed light on career prospects in industries related to agriculture, pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, and environmental consulting. Botanists can work as research scientists, quality control analysts, or environmental consultants in these sectors.

The webinar encouraged students to explore entrepreneurial ventures related to plant-based products, herbal medicine, and organic farming. Botany graduates can create their own start-ups or collaborate with existing ones.

The webinar provided valuable insights into the multifaceted world of botany careers. Students were inspired to make informed decisions about their future paths. The Department of Botany at Vivekanand College (Empowered autonomous) continues to empower students by organizing such informative sessions.
