Report on Seminar Activity on Entrepreneurial Finance (28th January 2025 to 30th January 2025)

The Department of Commerce successfully organized a Seminar Activity on various topics related to Entrepreneurial Finance for B.Com-II students from 28th January 2025 to 30th January 2025. The event was conducted in Room No. 302 at 9:00 a.m. on all three days. The primary objective of this seminar was to enhance students' understanding of financial decision-making in the context of entrepreneurship.

The seminar covered important topics such as:

- Sources of Entrepreneurial Finance
- Venture Capital and Angel Investment
- Financial Planning for Start-ups
- Working Capital Management
- Budgeting and Forecasting in New Ventures

Several students attended the sessions, and many of them actively participated by presenting topics, asking questions, and engaging in group discussions. The sessions provided practical insights into how entrepreneurs manage finances, raise capital, and plan for sustainable business growth.

The event was guided by faculty members from the Commerce Department, who also appreciated the efforts of students in preparing and delivering their presentations confidently. The seminar concluded with an interactive session, students expressed that the activity was informative and motivating.

The seminar achieved its goal of promoting entrepreneurial thinking among students and providing them with a strong foundation in entrepreneurial finance.
