Maharashtra Finance Minister Ajit Pawar on Friday presented the first Budget of Maha Vikas Aghadi-led government's in the Legislative Assembly.

New Delhi| Maharashtra Finance Minister Ajit Pawar on Friday presented Maha Vikas Aghadi-led Maharashtra government's maiden budget in the Legislative Assembly. The MVA government in Budget 2020-21 proposed Rs 5,000 crore for the health sector and allocated Rs 1,300 crore for higher and technical education.

While presenting the budget, Ajit Pawar said that the Central government did not approve funds last year for farmers who faced crop loss due to rainfall. Center only approved around Rs 956 crores, so instead of waiting for the Center's help, we took the initiative to help farmers.

Mr. Pawar said the budget proposals focus on tackling challenges of economic slowdown and creation of employment.

The Minister said that there was a drop in central funds to the State to the tune of ₹8,453 crore, and added that the total debt on the State till January 2020 is ₹4,33,901 crore.
