Handwriting Competition

Report

Name of Department: English

Name of Organized Activity: Handwriting Competition

Resource Person/Coordinator: Ms. Snehal Warekar

Date & Time: Thursday, 22nd January 2026, 10:00 a.m.

Venue: Room No. 201

Aims and Objectives:

- To encourage students to improve their handwriting skills
- To promote neatness, clarity, and proper presentation in writing
- To develop students' interest in effective written communication
- To enhance discipline and attention to detail in writing

No. of Beneficiaries: 93

Expenditure & Funding Agency: Self-Funded

Brief Description:

The Department of English organized a Handwriting Competition on 22 January 2026. Students from various streams enthusiastically participated in the competition. Participants were required to write a given passage within a fixed time, and their entries were judged on neatness, uniformity, spacing, and overall presentation.

The faculty members and volunteers successfully carried out the event. The competition provided students with an opportunity to showcase their handwriting skills and highlighted the importance of legible and well-presented writing in academic and professional contexts. The activity received an encouraging response from students.

The results of the competition were announced after evaluation as follows:

Category: Cursive Handwriting

- First Rank: Bhargavi Shewale (B.Voc. Part I, Graphic Design)
- Second Rank: Jidnyasa Prashant Gurav (B.Sc. I, Computer Science)
- Consolation Prize: Sophiya M. Mullani (B.Sc. III, Microbiology)

Category: Non-Cursive Handwriting

- First Rank: Jaymala Ramkrishna Naik (BCA Part I)
- Second Rank: Srishti Sachin Patil (B.Sc. II, Biotechnology)
- Consolation Prize: Juveria Muddsar Pathan (B.Sc. I, Microbiology)

Outcomes:

- Students recognized the importance of neat and legible handwriting
- Participants improved their writing presentation skills
- The activity encouraged students to develop better writing habits
- Students gained confidence in presenting written work neatly and effectively

The Habit That Shapes You

Reading is a very good habit that one needs to develop in life. Good books can inform you, enlighten you, and lead you in the right direction. There is no better companion than a good book. Reading is important because it is good for your overall well-being. Once you start reading, you experience a whole new world. When you start loving the habit of reading, you eventually get addicted to it. Reading develops language skills and vocabulary. Reading books is also a way to relax and reduce stress. It is important to read a good book for at least a few minutes each day to stretch the brain muscles for healthy functioning

Reading helps you develop positive thinking. It is important because it develops your mind and gives you extensive knowledge and life lessons. It helps you understand the world around you better. It keeps your mind active and enhances your creative ability. It improves your vocabulary and develops your communication skills. It helps you learn how to use your language creatively. Not only does it improve your communication, but it also makes you a better writer.
