Film Screening of A Doll's House Report

Name of Department: English Department

Name of Organized Activity: Film Screening of A Doll's House

Date/Duration: Friday, September 20, 2024

Aims and Objectives:

- To provide B.A. III year students with a visual understanding of the ~~novel~~^{drama} Doll's House by Henrik Ibsen.
- To facilitate a deeper appreciation and critical analysis of the play's themes, characters, and narrative structure through a cinematic medium.
- To bridge the gap between academic reading and the practical interpretation of a literary text.

No. of beneficiaries: Students: 26

Expenditure & funding agency: The event was an internal academic activity of the department and was self-financed.

Brief Description:

The English Department organized a film screening of A Doll's House for B.A. III year students on Friday, September 20, 2024. The film, based on the ~~novel~~^{play} by Henrik Ibsen, was screened in Hall No. 209 at 9:00 a.m. The students were requested to be seated by 8:45 a.m. to ensure a timely start. The screening aimed to complement the students' study of the novel by providing a visual and dramatic representation of the text. The activity was designed to encourage students to analyze the film's interpretation of key themes, such as social norms and gender roles, and to observe the character development of Nora in a different context.

Outcomes:

- The students gained a richer understanding of the play's themes and dramatic elements through the visual medium.
- The screening enhanced the students' engagement with the literary text, providing a fresh perspective on the characters' motivations and conflicts.
- The event successfully served as an effective educational tool, offering a practical and engaging way to supplement classroom learning.
- The students' attendance and active participation confirmed the value of such activities in making literature more accessible and interesting.
