7. Brief description: The primary objective of organizing the MCA Second Year trip to Dandeli is to provide students with an opportunity to learn beyond the classroom while enjoying a refreshing break from their academic schedule. The trip aims to foster teamwork and collaboration through various team-building activities such as group challenges, trekking, and adventure sports. Experiencing the natural environment of Dandeli enables students to connect with nature, promoting relaxation and creativity. The adventurous surroundings encourage confidence, courage, and quick decision-making. Students enhance their communication and leadership skills while working together to accomplish common goals. This experience also develops problem-solving abilities and adaptability in real-world situations. The trip contributes to personal growth, emotional maturity, and self-discipline. It helps students gain a broader perspective on life outside the classroom. Overall, the Dandeli trip serves as a valuable blend of education, adventure, and personal development.

- 8. Outcomes: 1. Students developed better collaboration, decision-making, and problem-solving skills.
2. They gained improved self-confidence, adaptability, and emotional maturity.
3. The trip strengthened environmental awareness and fostered positive relationships between students and faculty.
