

Dr. B.R. Ambedkar (1891-1956)

Ambedkar, the best student in the world

- Graduated from Elphinstone College, University of Bombay (Economics and Political Science (1912)
- MA in Economics from Columbia University, USA (1915)
- Second MA (1916)
- Ph.D. in Economics (1927)
- Enrolled for Bar's Council at Grey's Inn (1916)
- MA from London School of Economics (1921)
- Called to Bar by Grey's Inn (1923)
- D.Sc. In Economics from university of London (1923)

Why was he the best?

- Hunger for knowledge
- Perseverance
- Rational Attitude
- Social responsibility

The hard work pays...

- Dr. B. R. Ambedkar laid the foundation of Independent India
- First Law Minister of India
- Became a great leader
- Appreciated and needed
- Gave birth to a Revolution

His teachings..

- If there is poverty and social inequality, there would be no peace and democracy
- If there is no equality for all, there would no freedom for anyone
- If we don't have fraternity, there would be no freedom or equality
- If there is no freedom and equality, there would be no fraternity
- The country progresses, when its women do
- Constitution should live in people's hearts and not just on paper

Why should we heed Dr. Ambedkar?

- He was a social Scientist.

- He was a proud Indian.

- He was a fierce Human Being, an emblem of the greatest of pursuits.

India

Thank you.