- Brief description:

Guest Lecture on “From Campus to Cadre: An ISS Officer on Statistics Career” by Mr. Vedant Kondkar, Assistant Director, National Statistics Office, FOD, Kolhapur, held on September 27, 2025. In his lecture, he discussed career opportunities in statistics through central government exams such as the Indian Statistical Service (ISS) and Junior Statistical Officer (JSO). He explained the syllabus, preparation strategies, and interview process in detail. He also spoke about internship opportunities offered by central government departments and shared how such experiences help in developing analytical and practical skills. Drawing from his own journey of ISS preparation and his internship experience, he motivated students to pursue careers in government services with dedication and strategic planning.

The vote of thanks was presented by Mr. A. P. Patil.

- Outcomes: After the guest lecture,

- Students gained awareness of various career paths and internship opportunities in the central government sector.
- Students received valuable guidance on ISS preparation, interview techniques, and practical experiences shared by the speaker.
