Report

Guest Lecture on - “From Idea to Report: Planning Effective Field and Research Projects”

Date: 13 August 2006

Time: 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Venue: Department of Statistics, Hall No - 403

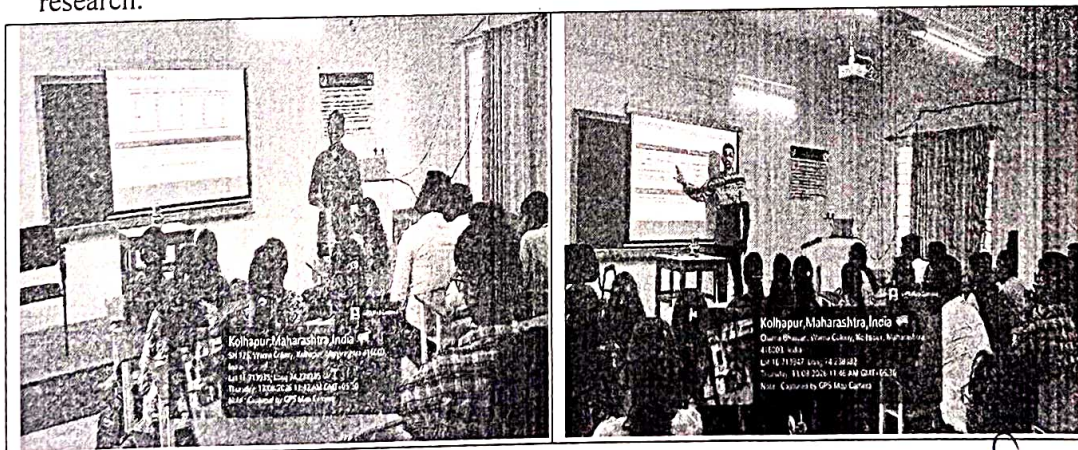

The Department of Statistics, Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (An Empowered Autonomous), organized a guest lecture on “From Idea to Report: Planning Effective Field and Research Projects” for the students of B.Sc. Part II, B.Sc. Part III, M.Sc. Part I, and M.Sc. Part II. The programme was organized with the objective of providing students with guidance on selecting research problems, planning field and research projects, and preparing systematic and effective research reports.

On this occasion, Dr. Santosh S. Sutar delivered an informative and insightful lecture on the various stages involved in conducting a successful field and research project. He explained how to develop a research idea, identify a suitable research problem, formulate objectives, select appropriate research methodology, collect and analyse data, and present the findings effectively in the form of a research report. He also emphasized the importance of proper planning, scientific data collection, and systematic presentation of research findings.

The programme was presided over by Head Mrs. V. C. Shinde. Mr. D. D. Patil introduced the guest speaker and welcomed all the participants. The programme was effectively conducted by Mr. A. B. Bhosale. The vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. A. P. Patil.

Outcomes of the Programme

1. Students gained knowledge about the various stages involved in planning and conducting effective field and research projects.
2. Participants developed a better understanding of how to identify research problems, formulate objectives, and select suitable research methodologies.
3. Students learned the importance of systematic data collection, analysis, and interpretation in research.
