7.	Brief Discussion	On 7 November 2025, the 150th anniversary of the writing of "Vande Mataram," composed by Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay, was celebrated across the country. The song, which was accorded the status of the National Song of India in 1950, inspired freedom fighters during India's independence movement. Following the guidelines of the Central and State Governments, the NCC cadets, along with the students and staff of the college, celebrated the occasion by singing the National Song. The programme was successfully organized under the guidance of Principal Dr. R. R. Kumbhar, Col. Manas Dixit, Col. Vikram Nalawade, Major Sunita Bhosale, and Lieutenant J. R. Bharamgonda.

8.	Outcomes	• The NCC cadets gained knowledge about the history of India's independence. • The NCC cadets became aware of the importance of different national songs and the national anthem, which have played a vital role in inspiring patriotism during times of war and national struggle. • The NCC cadets were inspired to preserve the nation's independent identity by serving the country through the Indian Armed Forces.
