7.	Brief Discussion	India declared itself an independent republic on 15th August 1947, but the control of the internal defense system was still under the British Empire. General Robert Butcher served as the last official head of colonial India's defence system. After independence, the charge was handed over to General Cariappa, who became the first official Chief of the independent Indian Army. The day on which General Cariappa took charge of the defence system, 15th August 1949, is celebrated as the first Indian Army Day. This day holds significance as it commemorates the transfer of authority to an Indian as the head of the defense forces. To honor and understand more about the defence system and its formation, Indian Army Day is celebrated across the country in various ways. NCC unit of the college organized a function with Lieutenant Colonel Kishor Kumar More, the Administrative Officer of 5 Maharashtra Bn NCC Kolhapur. He provided insights into the history of the Indian Army. Dr. R. R. Kumbhar presided over the program, and it was organized under the guidance of Captain Sunita Bhosale and Lieutenant Jitendra Bharamgonda. A total of 91 cadets participated in the function.
8.	Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The cadets remembered the sacrifice of Indian soldiers. .• The cadets decided to join the defence forces to serve the nation.• The cadets are decided to be commissioned officer and develop their career in defence forces .
