Activity report

Submission date 10/12/2025	Submitted by Dr- Sampada Tipkurle
Activity Type	Guest Lecture
Activity Title	तो,ती आणि ते
	The Department of Economics and Sansthamata Sushiladevi Salunkhe Women's Study Centre of Vivekanand College, Kolhapur jointly organized a guest lecture on "He, She and They" on the occasion of Human Rights Day. The programme began with a welcome and introduction by Prof. Kailas Patil, who focused on the history and significance of Human Rights Day. Students of B.Com I, Miss Samruddhi Chougule and Mr. Rishit Prasad, shared their views on human rights, emphasizing the duties and responsibilities of youth in society. The chief guest, Dr. Pratibha Pailawan, Founder of Rajhans Foundation – (The Institute for Transgender), shared her experiences and highlighted the challenges faced by the transgender community, along with the social realities surrounding their lives. In his presidential address, Principal Dr. S. P. Thorat stressed the need for awareness among youth about such issues and encouraged them to take responsibility with sensitivity and positivity. Prof. A. B. Wasekar delivered the vote of thanks. The programme was successfully organized by Dr. Sampada Tipkurle
Desired outcomes	1.The Programme created awareness among students about Human Rights and their importance in everyday life. 2.Students developed a better understanding of gender equality and inclusion, especially regarding the transgender community. 3.The lecture helped students realize the social challenges and discrimination faced by transgender individuals
