Complaints' Handling Process:

- Any aggrieved woman stakeholder may make a complaint of sexual harassment at her workplace, to the ICC in writing, within a period of 3 months from the date of the incident and in case of a series of incidents, within a period of 3 months from the date of last incident.
- The ICC may for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the time limit for a further period of 3 months, if in the opinion of the ICC, circumstances existed which prevented the aggrieved woman stakeholder from filing her complaint.
- Where an aggrieved woman stakeholder is unable to make a complaint in writing, the Presiding Officer, or any Member of the ICC shall render all reasonable assistance to the woman stakeholder to make her complaint in writing.
- Where the aggrieved woman stakeholder is unable to make a complaint on account of her physical incapacity, a complaint may be filed by a relative or friend, or a co-worker, or an officer of the National Commission for Women or the State Women's Commission; or any person who has knowledge of the incident, with the written consent of the aggrieved woman stakeholder.
- Where the aggrieved woman stakeholder is unable to make a complaint on account of her mental incapacity, a complaint may be filed by a relative or friend, or a special educator, or a qualified psychiatrist or psychologist, or the guardian, or the authority under whose care she is receiving treatment or care, or any person who has knowledge of the incident, jointly with any of the above.
- Where the aggrieved woman stakeholder for any other reason is unable to make a complaint, a complaint may be filed by any person who has knowledge of the incident, with her written consent.
- Where the aggrieved woman stakeholder is dead, a complaint may be filed by any person who has knowledge of the incident, with the written consent of her legal heir.

ICC Policy:

- On receipt of a complaint from an aggrieved woman stakeholder (Complainant), the ICC shall intimate the date, time and place of the hearing of the complaint to the Complainant and the Respondent.
- At the time of filing the complaint, the Complainant shall submit to the ICC six copies of the complaint, along with supporting documents and names and addresses of witnesses, if any.
- On receipt of such complaint, the ICC shall provide one copy of such complaint to the Respondent within 7 working days of its receipt of the complaint (with the consent of the Complainant).
- If the Complainant fears victimization and does not want to disclose her identity, then on the request of the Complainant, the ICC Presiding Officer may frame charges in writing, based on the complaint letter received from the Complainant and send the same to the Respondent.
- The Respondent shall file his reply along with a list of documents, names, and addresses of witnesses, within 10 working days of receipt of the complaint.
- The ICC shall investigate a complaint in detail, using procedures in conformity with the principles of natural justice.
- The ICC shall provide reasonable opportunity to the Complainant and the Respondent to present and defend her/his case, respectively.
- The ICC shall have the right to summon as many times the Complainant, or the Respondent, or witnesses for the purpose of supplementary testimony or any clarification.
- The ICC shall have the right to terminate the enquiry or to give an ex-parte decision on a complaint, if the Respondent or Complainant fails to be present for 3 consecutive hearings, without sufficient cause. Such termination or ex-parte order may not be passed without giving a notice in writing 15 days in advance to the concerned party.
- A quorum of 3 members is required to be present for an IC proceeding to take place.
- Additionally, the ICC shall meet every quarter to ensure effective implementation of the Policy and to monitor effective/timely redressal of complaints, if any.
- Neither the Complainant nor the Respondent shall be allowed to bring any legal practitioner to represent them in their case at any stage of the proceedings before the IC.
- The IC must complete its investigation within a period of 90 days.
